Bandhan (Raksha Bandhan)

Raksha Bandhan was celebrated at school with warmth and excitement, giving the children an opportunity to understand the beautiful bond of love, care, and protection shared between siblings. The celebration introduced them to the cultural significance of the festival while encouraging values such as affection, sharing, kindness, and respect for family relationships.

Bandhan (Raksha Bandhan)

The children participated enthusiastically in special activities planned around the festival. They explored the tradition of tying rakhi and expressed their feelings of love and appreciation through creative expressions and classroom activities. The celebration created a cheerful and heartwarming atmosphere and helped the children understand how festivals brought families and communities closer together.

Bandhan (Raksha Bandhan)

The children took part in a variety of fun-filled Raksha Bandhan activities that made the celebration interactive and memorable. They enjoyed designing and decorating colourful rakhis, creating Raksha Bandhan-themed greeting cards, and making festive crafts using vibrant colours and decorative materials. These activities encouraged creativity while helping children understand the meaning behind the festival.

The classrooms were filled with excitement as the children shared stories and thoughts about their siblings and the special bonds they shared with their families. Teachers also organised rakhi-making and sibling-themed art activities, giving children an opportunity to express love, gratitude, and affection through their creations.
