4th September'25 🐝 Theme: Bugs and Butterflies 🦋

Our little learners explored the fascinating world of bugs and butterflies .
Children learnt with the help of a set up how honey bees work to produce honey

Their curious minds was captivated by the amazing fun facts about bugs .
How butterflies taste with their feet, ants can carry things much heavier than their bodies, ladybugs help protect plants, and bees live happily together in hives with a queen bee as their leader.

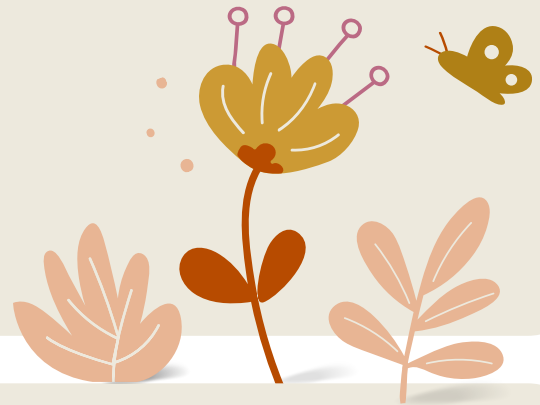

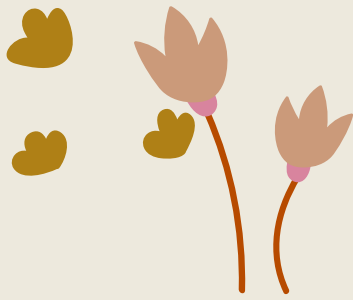

To make learning fun and expand the creative imagination of the children Nature's Bug Art was done.

6th September' 25 - Grandparents' Day Celebration

Apple Blossom's Grandparents' Day was a resounding success! Junior and senior KG students took charge as young comperes, hosting fun-filled game sessions. The event featured a peppy medley of evergreen hits by the teachers. Karaoke performances by grandparents and a talented young singer, taking everyone on a nostalgic journey. The beaming faces of our honoured grandparents made the event truly special. It was a joyous celebration of love, music, and intergenerational bonding!

12th September'25 - Hindi Divas

* On the occasion of Hindi Divas, Senior KG children showcased their creativity with Tukbandi using Vyanjan in a creative way. This interactive task helped them strengthen their vocabulary and build confidence in using Hindi naturally.

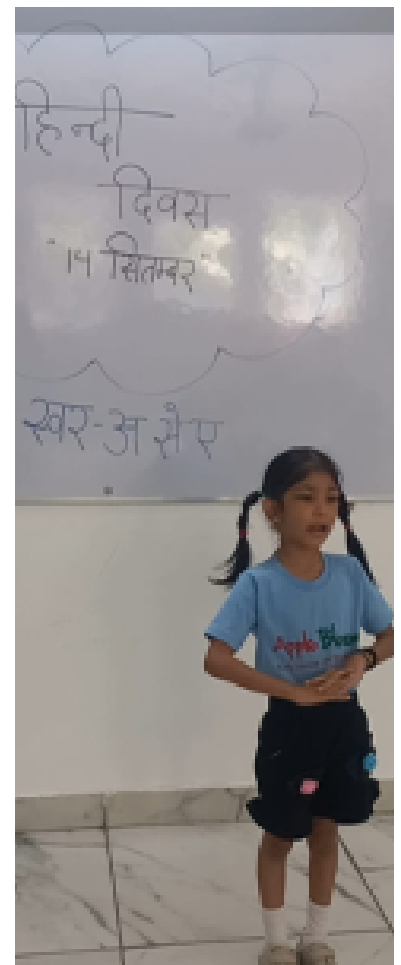

Junior KG children began by narrating thoughtful stories using flashcards designed to include swar related words. The story session was followed by cheerful Swar rhyme session. This way children not only enjoyed storytelling but also understood how swar are used in everyday language.

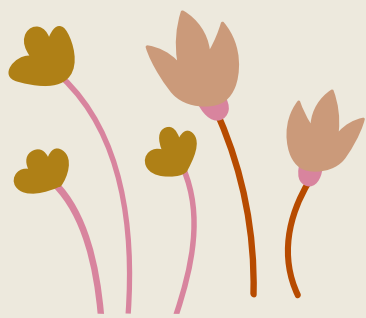

Overall the day aimed at learning and confidence building leaving the children motivated to explore Hindi language further.

22nd September'25 – World Rhino Day

* At Apple Blossom, our little ones celebrated World Rhino Day with exciting and engaging activities. Children enjoyed stomping in the mud during a fun sensory play, went on a pretend Rhino Safari to explore and learn about these gentle giants, and expressed their creativity by making their own Rhino Horns. The celebration was filled with joy, curiosity, and awareness about the importance of protecting rhinos and our wild life.

24th September'25 - World Gorilla Day

* At apple blossom, we celebrated World Gorilla Day with a range of fun and educational activities. Students built gorilla nests using natural materials, explored the Gorilla Jungle Café to learn about gorilla diets, and made banana play dough at the Jungle Station. They followed a gorilla foot trail, enacted gorilla movements, and designed creative gorilla caves through teamwork.

These hands-on activities encouraged curiosity, creativity, and a deeper appreciation for gorillas, inspiring students to care for wildlife and the planet.

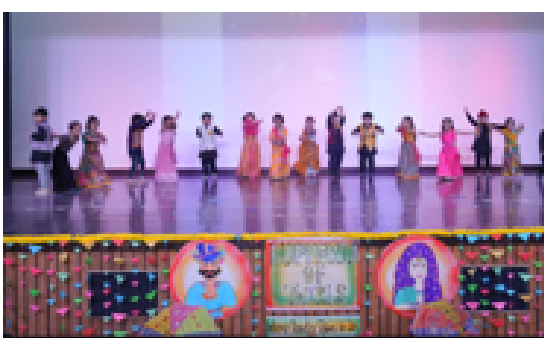

29th September'25 – Euphoria of Twirls

* Our school came alive with colors, music, and rhythm as we hosted the much-awaited Dandiya event, "Euphoria of Twirls" at DPSSL. The day was filled with energy as children showcased graceful dance performances, bringing alive the true spirit of Navratri with their vibrant moves and cheerful expressions.

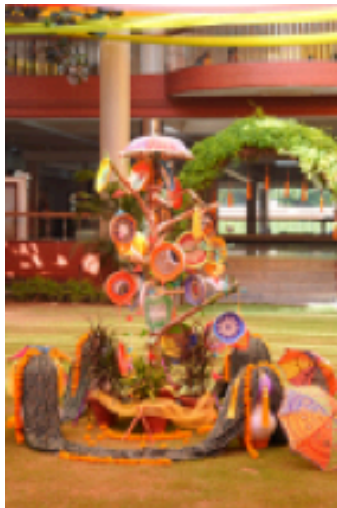

Adding to the joy, the mothers also joined in with mesmerizing Dandiya and Garba performances, creating a beautiful blend of tradition, enthusiasm, and togetherness. The beats of the music, the sparkle of costumes, and the synchronized twirls lit up the atmosphere, making it a celebration to remember.

It was truly a delight to watch the young and the grown-ups come together on one platform, celebrating culture and festivity with great zeal. The event not only spread happiness but also strengthened

30th September'25 – Dusshera

* A series of engaging activities were displayed for children to celebrate the spirit of Ramayana. The highlight was a puppet show depicting important episodes from the life of Lord Rama, including:

- Lord Rama's life in the forest
- The Golden Deer episode
- The abduction and rescue of Princess Sita
- Hanuman's mighty leap to Lanka
- The battle with Ravana
- The building of the Ram Setu

At Apple Blossom the school ambience was illuminated with elaborate festive decor . To enhance the festive atmosphere, the children also witnessed light decorations and rangoli displays, symbolizing joy and prosperity. The celebration beautifully conveyed the timeless message of the victory of truth over evil.
