

APS Delhi Cantt Hosts The Executive and General Body Meeting

Army Public School, Delhi Cantt hosted the National Progressive Schools' Conference (NPSC) on Monday, 22 December 2025. The conference brought together principals from various schools, providing a valuable platform for dialogue on school leadership and institutional growth.

The conference was graced by Ms Veditha Reddy from the Directorate of Education, who attended as the Chief Guest. Her presence added great significance to the occasion. In her address, she emphasised the vital role of school leaders in upholding academic standards, nurturing values, and guiding institutions towards meaningful and sustainable development.

The conference reflected the shared commitment of educational leaders towards strengthening school systems and fostering collaboration within the education community. It also reinforced the importance of leadership vision in shaping future-ready institutions.

The event was smoothly conducted and widely appreciated by the delegates. The successful hosting of the NPSC Conference stands as a moment of pride for Army Public School, Delhi Cantt and reaffirms the school's dedication to supporting initiatives that promote professional excellence and collective growth in education.
