"We pay a price when we deprive children of the exposure to the values, principles, and education they need to make them good citizens"

- Sandra Day O' Connor

Ms. Monica Khurana

Principal

Dear Parents,
We are about to complete the third quarter of the Academic year 2022-23 very successfully.
I am immensely happy and satisfied to see the growth index of my students. When I talk about growth, I mean the holistic development of the students. Along with academics, their social skills, intellectual skills, moral values and personality development is witnessed to a great extent.

The old Chinese proverb, "Tell me and I forget. Show me and I remember. Involve me and I understand," perfectly sums up the Millennium way of learning. To make our students competent in every way, the school conducts numerous activities and competitions which make them creative thinkers. They learn more by experiencing, discovering, creating, exploring, and interacting with the people around them. Experiential learning helps children think for themselves independently. This way they get a sense of achievement which improves their confidence. Parents, it is very important to understand and realize that we are moving toward a highly diverse and creative world where communication and creativity matter. If a child is exposed to different challenges, they are sure to learn greater things in life. With the new National Education Policy (NEP) and the need of an hour what is important is the knowledge that one has gained from experience, so exposure to several activities and challenges will escalate their confidence and boost their holistic development. Request the parents to lend a supporting shoulder as always for the students overall progress and making them responsible and independent.

Together, may we give our children the roots to grow and the wings to fly.

SUCCESS

Success is what we all chase,
it has got all humans in race.
It is completely made up of ups and downs,
so you will always have to struggle and strive.
Success has never been a number or position,
It is what our hearts truly seek for.
Success has never been an easy path,
We always have to lose something to gain something.
Success is not for those who just sleep, eat and drink and the next day want everything.
Life doesn't have an elevator to get you to success,
Just get up and use the stairs to go to success.

The Bustling Streets of Surat

Shall wake up to the birds' call at the barn in the middle of nowhere,
Treading for miles is only sunlit grass and some sheep.
If only I could be a businessman there,
I would hear the bustling of the city peak.
As i want my lifes' share,
City life, so fast and electric.

A World of My Own

A world of my own,
would be a place,
Where not just fairness,
but darkness would be a thing to embrace.

A region where, respect would be respected,
Where the victims will gain justice,
where evil will be corrected.

A place where,
Possessing materials wouldn't matter.
Where hearts drained of emotions,
Would be made better.

A site where,
Rain would be rainbow colored.
Resentment and rage won't exist,
wisdom and love would be showered.

At last I would say, a place where,
death won't knock a door.
Immortality would come to existence,
no one will fight the life death war.

Success is not for those who just sleep, eat and drink and the next day want everything.
Life doesn't have an elevator to get you to success,
Just get up and use the stairs to go to success.

City life or Village life...

Village is a place where peace resides,
Where relations with everything are tied.

A place where pollution is least,
And everyone shares if there is a feast.

City is a place where population is high,
Where everyone needs their personal Wifi.

A place where comfort is first,
And polluted water is used to satisfy their thirst.

Village is a place where primary occupation is agriculture,
Where kid knows his culture.

A place where an empty box is not returned,
And respect is the major thing to be earned.

City is a place where pollution takes place,
Where money is first embraced.

A place where factories are constructed,
And drugs, alcohol & gadgets are things to be addicted.

There will be a Sunrise...

There will be a sunrise....

In the darkness of corruption,
Which leads to the nation's destruction,
There will be a sunrise...

In the darkness of women's unsafety,
Where women cannot walk on roads safely,
There will be a sunrise....

In the darkness of human trafficking,
Because of which especially children start panicking,
There will be a sunrise....

In the darkness of discrimination,
Where girls do not get education,
There will be a sunrise....

There will be a sunrise of loyalty,
There will be a sunrise of safety,
There will be a sunrise of laws,
There will be a sunrise of equality.

Finding the books

Hey, I am May. I want to share a story of what happened. I have 3 best friends. We always hangout. One day at my home we were playing truth and dare. It was Suzen's turn to pick a dare. Then Mark said "I will give her a dare, I have an awesome one in my mind". Me and lizzy agreed and said "sure say". The dare was that she had to go into the attic and get a book she found interesting. She exclaimed "no! That place is super scary". I told her that we will go with her. We all went to the attic and she took a beautiful book and came back. The book looked so interesting. It had some shiny stones and a leather cover. I had never seen that book. As soon as we sat Mark said "let's stop the game and look through the book it looks interesting". I said "sure I would love to see the book". Soon after all agreed. When we opened the book and started seeing what was written in it. I found it a little suspicious. There were things like making a wand, seeing through walls, walking through time, lost and found you etc. We all creeped out and closed it. And started saying to each other how creepy and creepier it was getting. When it couldn't get creepier. The book opened automatically. Mark said with a scared chuckle "I guess it is just wind". Then he rushed and closed it. It opened again and I said it is not wind there is no wind we are using air-conditioner not fan. Then we went close to see what was written as "MAKE A WAND ''. We were like it was magical. Let's have some fun and make the wand. I guess this was the worst mistake as things took a turn afterwards. We started reading the ingredients. It was easy and not a long list. It was like

MAKE A WAND

YOU WILL NEED: Rope made of jute, Merrilet tree branch, Paper cutter, Sandpaper and Merrilet powder.

We almost had everything but we didn't know anything about merrilet. But then I remembered that our neighbor misses Andreal. She knows about all sorts of weird stuff. And the good thing was she was my friend. We all went to her house and we found the ingredient. I was not so shocked but my besties were. I felt it strange as I searched on google and found no such thing as murrelet. I thought about it for quite a long time but I had to stop at a point as it was getting creepy. We all started to make the wand. We could design the way we want to so I made a puppy on top and even Mark made a puppy. Suzen and Lizzy made kittens. We all made our pet animals. We were all discussing and laughing when the book vanished leaving a note.

USE THE WAND U MADE TO FIND ME CUZ WHY NOT.

We didn't know what to do or how the wand work.we were tense. Mark said the best thing we heard was "wands are used with spells and spells are found in spell books. Let's search the attic for the book with the same logo. And we actually found a spell book. We flipped a few pages and we found a spell. So we tried it. We waved our wand and said "LES OBJETS PERDUS APPARAISSENT". There was literally no change in the atmosphere. We thought it didn't work so we all slept as it was late at night. But when we woke up something unexpected happened.

Fulfilling Your Wishes

There are moments when there is something that I really, really want to change but I can't. It may be something active or intangible as desperately wanting to feel differently. So how do I get what I want?

The best thing I do is to stop thinking about what I haven't got. If I think I am sad, the universe will deliver me more sadness. To break this cycle, I reverse my thoughts and feelings and flip it to positivity. Because remember physics, energy can't be destroyed but changed to different forms.

The key here is gratitude. I start by being grateful for what I have even if it's as small as a hot cup of coffee or cool weather.

The next step is mindfulness, I feel and I think I already have that thing that I really want. Also, Einstein says "Imagination in everything". So, in order to bring what I want in my life, I imagine myself already having it and dive into that feeling.

Creatively, Visualizing with feeling!!

Touch The Sky

Be like a bird oh! so high
Try try and touch the sky.
Be brave, stop being shy
You will win only if you try.
Give your best
And leave the rest.
Whenever you fail
Remember it's your test.
So forget the pain
And stand up again .
Spread your wings
And reach the sky.

The Creepy Night

I was studying for my exams at 10pm. When suddenly I heard a noise coming from outside. Not to mention my parents were already sleeping. I got up from my study table and went outside to check where the noise was coming from. When I went outside there were nothing but two small red lighting balls floating in the air. It was dark but when I switched on the lights the two balls disappeared. I was shocked but I didn't care, so I switched off the lights and went back to study. Suddenly there was a knock on the door, "knock, knock...". I thought, " who would knock on the door at midnight." I went to check who was there. When I opened the door there was an old man. He told me that he was thirsty so he asked me for a glass of water. I told him to sit inside the house before I brought him water. While bringing the water there were many questions in my mind which I couldn't describe. When I went to the old man, he was not there. Actually he disappeared. Not only that, there was a note too. It said "I'll be back soon". What does that mean? Things were getting worse. Now I was scared. I went to my parent's to tell them what was going on but they weren't there. I went outside the house taking the keys. I went to my car, started it and drove somewhere. I don't know. I was thinking about where my parents could go in the middle of the night. As I was driving there were no cars except mine. Suddenly a car was driving. It seemed like it was following me. I stopped my car, got out of my car. My whole body was still shaking, I managed to stand and be brave. I turned back but there was no car. I was creeped out. I thought oh going back to my house.when I started the car it was not starting. I tried 10 times but still it was not starting. The 11th time the car started. As it got started I began to drive the car. As I reach home I unlocked the door, went to my room, made my bed, and tried to sleep but I was shocked because when I came home, my parents were there at home sleeping, in the same position they were in! As I was thinking about it suddenly there was a knock at the door again but the way it was getting knocked was like that satan was knocking the door. Do you think I am going to open the door? Absolutely not, I tried to ignore the knock but the knock was getting louder and louder. I couldn't take it anymore. I went to the door and was about to open when suddenly I remembered that we had spyglass on the door. I checked who was there on the door with the help of the spyglass. Where I saw my great grandma who died years ago. I got terrified. how can she come here even after she Is dead. was it a ghost? is someone pretending to be her? It was too late when the door suddenly got break. It fell right on the floor. When the door got broken, absolutely the ghost and I were in eye contact. Not only that, the two red balls, the old man, and the car and its owner were there. They were coming towards me when suddenly I got hit in hard on my head and lost consciousness. When I woke up it was morning already. This unsolved mystery has to be solved but in the next story. Be continued with us.

We are in the 21st century, the phase of transformation. The teaching plays a key role in it. There is a lot of impact of the teachers on the students. I can't forget the beautiful memory when in a shopping mall , a tiny tot started screaming excitedly to her mother, "Mom, it's her, it's her" I turned around and there he was, a cute boy of my class, for him, her teacher is a celebrity, Whatever qualities or skill the tiny tots learn from their teachers are not detailed in the syllabus.

The teachers help them to grow and make them responsible for imparting some of life's most important lessons. During their initial years in the school they encounter the other children perhaps for the first time, and choose their friends. The teacher is the one who will teach them how to become independent and make a wise relationship. She will carefully guide them and intervene whenever it is necessary. The teachers' hard work, dedication ,and motivation can give a new life to them. There is a beautiful quote which states,

"When the student is ready, the teacher appears." — Marlene Cante

Authenticity

Why do you think so much?
Why do you run after time?
The intellect slacks behind others.
But why does it matter to you?
And why do you compare yourself with others?
Why doesn't the practitioner alter the reality?
Why are you alarming your heart by recalling the past?
You put a curb on this considering of yours.
If you need to form it, gotten to be a bird.
Open your wings and forth.
Go wherever you need to go..
Feel each moment..
Keep what you like..
Learn to cherish yourself first,
Only at that point you anticipate from others,
You learn to live each moment..
Even in case terrible times come,
You learn to battle with them.
You learn to grin once more.
See, this time will too bolster you.
Will continuously be with you like a shadow.
You come out of dream world.
And in reality you learn to live.

Parent's Testimonials

To - The Millennium School,

I'm writing this to appreciate the millennium school and its staff.

To commence with, I am really so grateful to Pooja ma'am, the tutor of Revati, astute in inculcating not only academic subjects but also discipline as well as morale and ethical values, invariably well-behaved and co-operative,benevolent, handles my mischievous daughter skillfully ,as I was so worried about her writing proficiency but Pooja ma'am has made her competent to write.

In addition, Revati always praises other teachers like Anjali ma'am, Manjari ma'am, Kanika ma'am.Thus, I am thankful to all these teachers for their cooperation.

What's more, other mentors associated with extracurricular activities are also experts in teaching various expertise to Revati,which are crucial for her holistic development.

Last but not the least, housekeeping staff, especially Tara masi,who is alway there to help Revati by offering her food and other services.I admire her work too.

Eventually, I feel that my offspring is so fortunate that she is learning in such an efficient school.

Yours faithfully,

Pratik Solanki,

Bijal Solanki,

Parents of Revati.

EW - RTF & CLASS I

We

Dr.Harshad V. Patel and Dr.Sejal H. Patel ,

Parents of Ansh Patel (studying in RTF IIA) and

Drisha Patel (studying in Class IIA)

feel our duty to give reviews of The Millennium School & Teachers.

After searching for around 25 Preschools-Schools , we opted Little Millennium Preschool and then The Millenium School for further education Because of several heart touching reasons as pointed below orderwise.

1. " 7 Petal " curriculum -

Cognitive development, Gross motor development, Fine motor development, Personal awareness, Socio-emotional development, Language development & Nurturing individual potential.

2. Unique Teaching method " Millennium Learning System (MLS) ".

3. Needy extracurricular activities (Not overburdened)

4. Good management.

5. Energetic and Empowered positive environment.

6. Excellent manpower starting from brilliant Principal, cooperating Teachers to kind laborers.

7. Qualities of All Teachers (3rd Guru) like having good command of the curriculum, good listener , good communication skill , sharing and caring nature , cooperative nature , down to earth , authenticity , emotional etc..

RTF IIA Class teacher Of my son Ansh Patel , Miss Tania Rohra has all qualities as mentioned above , but MIMP what I feel is sharing and caring nature - cooperative nature - good communication and Listening skill.

Coordinator Of my son Ansh Patel , Miss Pinkal Patel has all qualities as mentioned above , but MIMP what I feel is supportive and kind nature.

Thank you for giving me this opportunity ...

Thank you ...thank you...thank you..

My daughter is studying in the Ist standard of this school. She is new to this school but soon she has become very much attached to the school, especially to her class teacher Mrs Ami.

The teaching methods followed here are really good. It includes practical learning with teaching aids which makes kids understand the concept and grasp it quickly.

The activities conducted here helps students to indulge themselves in various sports activities which helps all around development.

I have seen much improvement in my daughter. Initially she didn't want to come to school but now she loves to go to school. Two challenging tasks she has achieved. One is writing in cursive handwriting and the second is studying hindi. Both of the said ones were totally new for her as she was not exposed to them. But now within a short time she is doing good.

I am happy with the performance of my child and appreciate the teachers and the school both.

Thank you

Parent's of Viona Mehta

Dear Team,

I would like to take this time to thank you and TMS for maintaining such a positive environment for my daughter in RTF IB. The activities planned for the kids are exciting, and both you and Manjari Ma'am are simply amazing with the kids!

I would also especially like to thank you for being very approachable and motivating all the parents to work together. Especially with the recent activity, 'Weave a Story', it was amazing to see the parents encourage the other parents to participate. This is only because you have kept a very open chain of communication with the parents, and always treat us like we are one big team.

The smiles on the teachers' faces during the PTM are so nice to watch. You all truly love your job and it shows! I don't know how you all manage to give so much time to so many kids and then also constantly communicate with the parents - amazing!

I am writing this from my heart - you are truly a great educator, and I am thankful to TMS for all the support for the little kids :).

Regards,

Rachita

Dear Team,

Thank you for giving me an opportunity to share class feedback for the newsletter.

" Excellent, Exciting and Exclusive learning experience for kids!

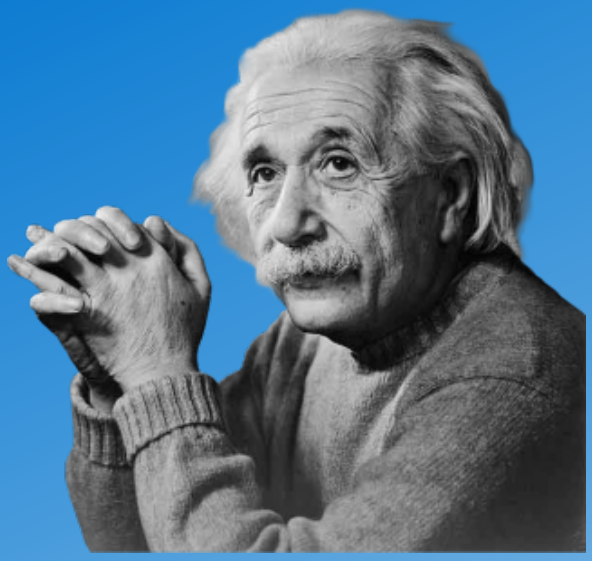

All teachers are very helpful and patient with kids. Pooja ma'am, Tarang ma'am, Vaishali ma'am, Pinkal ma'am and even Principal - Monica ma'am are cordial at all times with students and parents as well. Students are given undivided attention and focus. Student- centric activities and events give equal opportunities to all. Coming to school is a fun experience for my kids. Other staff are also supportive and kind.

Thank you so much for all the dedication and individual attention!"
